History of Yee Sang

According to Chinese legend over 5000 years ago, the goddess Nu Wa spent six days creating an animal out of mud, and on the seventh day, she created humanity. Ren Ri, the Day of Humankind is correspondingly celebrated on the seventh day of Chinese New Year and to celebrate this day, we enjoy a special dish comprising of seven symbolic delicacies. This special dish is Yee Sang.

When Yee Sang is served, the ritual is to toss the mixed ingredients high in the air while shouting "LOH HEI." This translates to "move upwards." It is a symbol for all auspicious wishes for growth in fortunes, abundance wealth, good health and happiness.
